

James Ingram

November 2, 1951 - November 8, 2022

James Ingram was born November 2, 1951, in Winter Park Florida to parents, Dan Ingram Sr. and Vernella W. Ingram. He graduated from Winter Park High School in 1970.

James worked for the Hertz Corporation for approximately thirty-seven years until retirement. During his years of tenure, he developed an unparalleled skillset and passion for car detailing. Because of such, he would always meticulously keep every car he's owned over the years shining and sparkling as bright as diamonds.

James was an avid lover of the sport of basketball. He enjoyed watching and playing it during his free time and would often compete with his son, Chris on a game of one-on-one. His love for sports motivated him to become a dedicated member of the Y.M.C.A in Orlando, Florida where he was committed to his fitness and staying in shape.

He was known on any giving day to always incorporate a pair of fresh Converse Chuck Taylor or Stacy Adams shoes to complement his sharp wardrobe. He had a personality that was cool, smooth, feisty, and yet loving.

James departed this life Wednesday, November 8, 2022.

He was preceded in death by his Father, Dan Ingram, Sr; Mother, Vernella Ingram; and Brother, Lewis H. Sermon.

Left to cherish his memory are his: loving Son, Chris Hunter, Sr. (Renaye) of Orlando Florida; loving and devoted Daughter, Kesha Fitzgerald (Nehemiah) of Jonesboro, Georgia; Brother, Dan Ingram, Jr. (Faith) of Orlando, Florida; Sisters: Luvenia Owens of Cassville, Georgia, Cora Camion of Hahira, Georgia, and Fannie McCormick (Eddie) of Valdosta, Georgia; Grandchildren: Christopher Hunter, Jr., Kierra Fair, and Jermya Jones; Great Grandchildren: Ke'yonis Johnson, and Je'lles Johnson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
