

James Kofi-Aseidu Oberg

April 2, 1999 - July 24, 2022

James Kofi-Aseidu Oberg was born April 2, 1999 in Worcester, Massachusetts to parents, James Oberg and Frances Toney. As a young child, James and his family relocated to Florida and he attended Orange County Public Schools. He continued his education with Workforce and was a graduate of the Home Builders Institute Carpenter Apprenticeship Program.

James was an absolute gamer who loved playing video games. He enjoyed music and was a skilled artist who loved to draw.

Although he had a somewhat quiet personality, James had a great sense of humor and was lovable to any one who met him. He was a thinker and one to march to the beat his own drum.

James was preceded in death by his Paternal and Maternal Grandfathers: Willie Toney and Jacob Obeng; Paternal and Maternal Grandmothers: Cleotha Stokes and Caroline Koi; and Brother, Jorge Lopez.
