

James T. Stallings

July 22, 1946 - October 25, 2020

James T. Stallings "JT" was born in Winter Haven, Florida on July 22, 1946 to Annie Bell Carter and Charles Carter, Sr. At an early age he moved to Winter Garden, Florida where he met and married the love of his life, Mary Lundy (Red). James started his Christian Journey at Open Door Primitive Baptist Church until his health began to fail. He had a special love for music especially Tyrone Davis. He was the king of dominos and could play from morning until night. He was a very humble man. James was employed by Dump All for many, many years. He retired from the City of Oakland as a maintenance worker. On October 25, 2020 at 8:26p.m., God in His infinite wisdom, saw fit to send an angel down to earth to usher James (Pop) to his eternal home in glory. His departure is a deep and personal loss to his family and many friends and he will be greatly missed by them all.

James was preceded in death by his mother: Annie Bell Carter, father: Charles Carter, Sr., brothers: Andrew Dukes and Alfred Carter, sisters: Mary Bradley and Cora Carter. He leaves to cherish precious memories to: his loving and devoted wife: Mary Lundy; daughters: Blossom Haynes (Travis), Maria DuBois (Arosco), Debbie Hooten (Lorenzo), Carla Johnson, Dela Arnold (Curtis); sons: Terry Lundy (Angie), Gilbert Lundy (Keisha), Jamie Carter, Anthony Lundy, Vincent Lundy, Horace Lundy (Orma) and Antonio Williams; sixty-eight grandchildren: forty-six great grandchildren; one aunt: Vilena James: a host of cousins and many sorrowing friends.
