

James Arthur Thompson, Jr.

September 1, 1963 - July 21, 2025

He was a hard worker and devoted father to his two children and grandchildren, whom he loved so much. James would always praise his children and grandchildren. That would always uplift him and make him smile every time he spoke about them.

On July 21st in the year of 2025, around 6 P.M., his father, James, Sr., whispered to the Lord, "My child is tired and needs to rest". So, the Lord looked down on James r., took him by his hand and said, "My child it's time to come home, and take your well-deserved rest".

He is preceded in death by his father, James Arthur Thompson, Sr. Maternal Grandparents: David and Melba Lang, Paternal Grandparents: Gilbert and Wille Pearl Purcell; Aunts: Jean Adkins, Bernice Mclean, Annie Doris Portlow, and Bernice Lang; Uncles: Ralph Lang, Wilbur Lang, and Arthur Avery.

He leaves to cherish his memories: A mother who loved him deeply, Dorothy Thompson of Apopka, FL; Son: Jamontay Thompson (fiancée, Priscilla) of Boston, MA; Daughter: Jeannette Thompson of Orlando, FL; Sisters: Gloria McGarvin, Brenda Wilkerson (Michael, Sr.) both of Apopka, FL; Linda Chastine, and Shawn Clarke (Ephraim) both of Winter Park, FL; Grandchildren whom he adored: Malia Thompson of Boston, MA, Deantae Holmes, Aiden Holmes and Jakobe Jones, all of Orlando, FL; Aunts: Minnie
