Jane Mason, beloved Wife, Mother, and Grandmother, passed peacefully at age 90 on November 24, 2025. Born May 1, 1935, in Ayr, Scotland, to parents Thomas Wilson and Margaret Bell. Jane brought light and love wherever she went.

She was the devoted wife of Carlyle Mason, Sr., for many cherished years and the proud mother of daughters, Caroline, Yvette, and Joanne, and son, Carlyle, Jr. Jane's home was filled with the aroma of home-cooked meals, the sound of bedtime stories, and the joy of family games. She loved to laugh, and her gentle warmth touched every corner of our lives.

Jane was the true heart of the family—our anchor, our devoted homemaker, and the quiet strength who held us all together. Her greatest passions were her family and her recipes, each one seasoned with endless love.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Thomas Wilson and Margaret Bell; husband, Carlyle Mason Sr.; and her daughter, Yvette Mason.

Her memory love will be forever cherished by her loving children, Caroline Mason, Joanne Mason, and Carlyle Mason Jr. She is also survived by her grandchildren: Thomas, Thaddeus, Shauna, Justina, Jada, Cordell, Peyton, Katie, and Jessica, a host of “ Once I went to visit Justina and Shauna at Mrs. Mason’s home. It was late, but not very late. Mrs. Mason invited me in, had a cup of tea, and we had some small talk. Shortly after, Yvette came in with Justina and Shauna. As Yvette came in, Mrs. Mason went to bed. It crossed my mind that Mrs. Mason could have turned me away at the door. It seemed like she stayed up just so I could visit with Justina and Shauna. I was very touched and still am very grateful. Thank you Mrs. Mason for all your help with Justina and Shauna. Please rest in peace.
