

Janice B. Stafford

September 26, 1934 - April 30, 2021

Janice Blanche Cherry Stafford was born September 26, 1934 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana to Emmanuel Cherry and Annie Mae Frances- Cherry. She graduated from Douglas High School in Live Oak, Florida. Janice loved to dance to her favorite song “Bad Mama Jama” by Carl Carlton. She was a substitute teacher at Washington Shores Elementary School and a Nurse’s Aide in her younger days at Orange Memorial Hospital. After retirement, she became a homemaker raising her grandkids while being a business owner and a salesperson. She loved selling items at the Flea Market. She was a hustler at heart. Anyone who came in contact with Janice began to love her and will always love her. Her spirit lives on through her family and friends. She received Christ at a very early age.

Janice was preceded in death by her children father, George Redding; father, Emmanuel Cherry; mother, Annie Mae Frances-Cherry; sisters, Lucille Demps and Jennetha Cherry and brother, Emmanuel Cherry, Jr. Janice leaves to cherish precious memories to: children, Bridgette Redding-Gue (Charlonet), Georgia Redding, Rosalind Redding and George Redding, all of Orlando, Florida; ten grandchildren; LeAnna Redding Tomlin (Ricky), LeAndrew Redding, Calvin White, Jr. Courtney Manning, LeTavia Redding, Kievia Redding, Antonio Redding, Amial White (Brittany), Dominique Redding and Deshawn Glover; thirty-six great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
