

Jarrold D. Wynn

October 17, 1983 - September 29, 2025

Jarrold's life journey began in Orlando, Florida on October 17, 1983, to the parentage of the late Lucy Mae Wynn and Pastor Keith Bridges. On Monday, September 29, 2025, at 7:08 p.m., Jarrold peacefully exchanged his earthly life for eternal rest.

As we reflect upon Jarrold's legacy, we celebrate a life filled with love. Known for his warm smile, infectious laughter, playful nature, and genuine kindness, Jarrold touched the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing him. Jarrold's deep friendships extend far beyond blood ties, creating meaningful connections throughout his life.

Jarrold was a proud graduate of Winter Park High School, Class of 2002. In 2020, he pursued his entrepreneurial dreams by founding his own business, I.W.S.O.D.. Later, he earned his CDL license and embarked on a career in long-distance trucking, traveling across various states across the country, until his health declined. Jarrold worked in the sound and media department at St. Paul A.M.E. Church in Apopka, Florida, and was willing to help wherever needed. His fish and fries will be missed.

Jarrold family legacy includes those who have gone on before him...Grandparents: Matida Hardwick, Wiley Wynn, and Otis Stewart, Sr., along with his great-grandparents, Annie Love Bridges, Marian Moore

Stewart, and Abraham Stewart; also preceding him in death but fondly remembered and cherished: his, Aunt, Cassandra Stewart, as well as his Uncles, George Wynn, Johnny Wynn, Jerry Wynn, and Sammie Earl Hardwick; and Godmother, Robin Pollard.

He leaves to cherish his memories...Parents, Pastor Keith and Evangelist Debra Bridges of Apopka, Florida; Siblings: LaQuanda of North Carolina, KeShanda and Maysha, both of Apopka, Florida; Nieces: Jakari, Avery, and Cyriah, all of Apopka, Florida; Nephews: Roderick, Bryson, Karter, and Trenton, all of Apopka, Florida and Arrington Richardson of North Carolina; Grandmother, Josephine Bridges of Apopka, Florida; Aunts: Special Aunt, Luerella Wynn, Doris Hardwick, Mildred Ellison, and Anquita Moore (Lucious), all of Apopka, Florida, Tawana Robinson, and Debra Stewart, both of Orlando, Florida; Uncles: Otis Muhammad (Tawanna) Willie Fred Wynn, and Steven Wynn, all of Apopka, Florida; A Special Friend, Megan Brinson of New Smyrna Beach, Florida; God-mothers: LaTonya Rew, and Gail Henderson-Johnson; as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, other loving relatives, and many sorrowing friends who will continue to cherish the memories they shared with Jarrod.

“ Jarrod, you have no idea how much you will be missed. I know its been a while since we last saw you, but we always asked about you to see how you were doing and what you were up to. Going to miss that boisterous laugh of yours. Fly high like the angel that you are. We'll meet again someday, I'm sure. - Leann, Angela and Teddy
