“ My soft spot, my joker, my JJ, my son. I miss you so much, my heart breaks within me and my bones are weak, you have never caused me heartache nor pain but now that you are gone my heart aches for you and pain has taken over my limbs but in spite of it all God has given me peace in the midst of the storm. I will forever love you my son and rest assure that I will see you again someday. My son words cannot express my feelings at the moment but I enjoyed every minute of your 31 years of life here on earth with us.

“ RIP Jason aka Fatta. It's weird that the year I met you in person in Jamaica is the year you died. You were warm and gentle with a smile of an angel. My mom taught you in yours days at Unity Primary and it seems like just yesterday. .but God knows best. They say the best flowers are picked fresh...so God plucked you after 31years. I will never forget what you said to me that night in negril and it's sad we will never have moments like those again.... surly will be missed by Dez, Duwi, kashi...ur entire Rampasard family...and the friends you met like myself (yonique Morris). Sweet angel

“ I have so many fond memories of Jason. Working with him, countless afternoons hanging out/dancing in his garage, even more countless nights out at Denny's full of laughter, getting to see his overwhelming excitement when driving his Evo for one of the first times after he bought it, and hearing him talk about his daughter with all the emotion of the amazing father I'm sure he was. I haven't spoken to him for a few years, but he touched my heart just as he did for many others. I will always remember his peaceful nature, kindness, and how everyone was drawn to him. I can't recall a single person ever having an issue with Jason. He was, and will always be an incredible man. Jay, you are loved, you are missed... ?

“ My heart hurts to know that my little cousin is gone. He was the first child I babysat for. I have a pic of him and I in my front yard back in Jamaica..... he was 1yrs old and just got his balance. He was so lovable and always very happy. Jason has always been one of my favorite cousins. I don't have many memories of him, as I left Jamaica when he was 4 yrs old, but the memories I do have I will cherish forever. To Dahlia (my favorite cousin)..... find comfort in knowing that God's plan is Always better than ours. Keep thanking and praising God for the time he gave you with Jason. Cherish the memories, and forever keep him in your heart. Jason is gone..... but will never be forgotten. To Sherrica, This will hurt for now, but trust in God and he will comfort you thru this time. Love your girls unconditionally and teach them about the kind of man their father was. To the rest of our very large family.....Trust in GOD, and he will see us thru this time of hurt. He is our comforter.
Loving you always
Kerry
