

Mr. Jean Beaucius Bernard

February 23, 1929 - November 11, 2017

Jean B. Bernard was born February 23, 1929 in Au Cap Haiti to Philistin and Serena Bernard. He was the funniest man on earth. He was the most hard-working individual to walk this earth. He used to work countless hours and overtime just to make sure his family had everything they needed. In the early 90's he became a stay-at-home dad as a result of an injury. As his role transitioned, he never missed a beat. He was the best father who attended every concert, every dance recital, and every football game. He was very loving and attentive to his wife and all of his children. He always made sure family came first. He was the definition of compassion and unconditional love. A great father and an awesome husband.

He is survived by the following loved ones: Wife, Rose Marie Bernard; Sons: Jean Yves Bernard, Jeffrey Bernard, and daughter Eileen J. Bernard, all of Orlando, Florida.
