

Jeffrey Alden Cirino-Lan

February 6, 1964 - May 3, 2020

Jeffrey Alden Cirino-Lan was born February 6, 1964 in Clewiston, Florida to Pablo Pedro Cirino-Lan (deceased) and Freddie Lee Jordan (deceased). As a teenage, Jeffrey was involved for many years with the Boy Scouts.

In 1985, he married his first wife, Lisa Cirino-Lan, with whom he had two daughters, Crystal Cirino-Lan and Jesica Cirino-Lan. He also helped raise her two children as his own, Ellen "Sissy" Mason and Henry Mason.

You may remember Jeffrey as part of the Clewiston Middle School Choir and after high school, he joined the Minister Gospel Singers, as lead Soprano. Jeffrey worked in the sugar cane industry for U.S. Sugar, Inc. before retiring and moving to Orlando, Florida. In Orlando, he launched his catering and event planning company entitled Agape Catering, Inc. Additionally, he was a broker in the trucking industry. Although not an occupation, Jeffrey was an avid fisher, hunter and celebrated marksmanship.

Jeffrey was a God fearing man and ordained as a Deacon at Except the Lord Build the House Ministries under the leadership of Bishop Preston and Apostle Inez Nobles. It is in church where he met his late wife, Rene Cirino-Lan and helped raise her two boys as his own Donovan Gardner (Ashley) and Jaquan Alexander. At the time of his death, Jeffrey was an active member and Director of Security for Acceleration Church; under the leadership Pastors Dio and Tekoa Pouverie (niece). He was lovingly call "Uncle Jeffrey" by all members.

His sisters: Cassandra Cirino-Lan and Ericka Cirino-Lan; cousins: Brenda Morris and Janice Stallworth; along with his parents and his late wife preceded him death.

Jeffrey leaves behind his siblings and their spouses: Judge Stallworth (Isabelle), James Weston (Patricia), Nidia Scott (Willie), Catherine Weston, Gayle Weston, Paul Cirino-Lan (Rita Maria) and Joshua McAllister (Tabatha); as well as an enduring cousin: Cynthia Stallworth.

Jeffrey also leaves six grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews whom he affectionately loved. Many were blessed knowing him though-out his life. Jeffrey led many people to the Lord and never hesitated to say a prayer for you or with you. Although we will miss him we know e is in the Glory of the Lord.

“ *Jeffrey . It is so hard to believe you are gone. It is slowly sinking in that we will not be able to pick up the phone and call you , hear your voice or even invite you to join us for a swim or laugh at the competitions between you and Paul on who grills the best. You have left a void in the lives of your nieces and nephews . Till we meet again. I love you
