

Jerome Holmes

May 13, 1968 - December 2, 2023

Jerome Holmes was born to Oscar Holmes and Mary Lee Barrett (Manning) on May 13, 1968, in Montezuma, Georgia. When Jerome was younger, he was affectionately known to his family as "Bae-Bae". Reared in Orlando, Florida Jerome attended Evans High School, and after high school went on to attend Valencia Community College where he completed his computer courses.

In 2000, Jerome joined the team of Charter Communications which later became Spectrum. He worked for 21 years, and retired in October 21, 2021, due to medical reasons.

On February 1, 2004, Jerome married the love of his life Anisia Knight Holmes. Jerome has said more than once, Anisia was the best thing to ever happen in his life. He loved her dearly and she remained by his side through all his medical challenges and was there when he took his last breath. Anisia was his biggest cheerleader.

Jerome was well versed in various subject matters from computers to cars. He was funny and enjoyed his music from the 80's Jerome was a self-proclaimed "word-ologist", and great on his barbeque grill and smoker, even referred to as a Pit Master by his kids.

Jerome was preceded in death by his mother Mary Lee Barrett, and his brother Harvey Lee Manning (Wanda).

Many hearts were blessed and filled with laughter for the 55 years the Lord loaned Jerome to us. Jerome leaves to cherish his memory: Wife, Anisia Holmes; Children, Jonathan Jerome Holmes, Jasmin S. Holmes, and Joshua Curtis Holmes; Grandchildren, Tianna Christen and Analah Christen; Siblings, Ronnie Manning, Virginia Holmes, and Curtis Manning (Nakia); Father, Oscar Holmes; Stepfather, Dudley Barrett; Special Relatives, Roosevelt Knight, Almeda Alexander, Anitra and Justus Alexander, Mary DeLaughter, Jacqueline Thompkins; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
