REFLECTIONS OF LIFE

Jerry Bernard Haddock

A TIME TO BE BORN

Bernard Haddock was born on November 15, 1977 in Sarasota, Florida to Jerome haddock and Angela parker.

A TIME FOR EVERY PURPOSE UNDER THE HEAVENS

Bernard attended school in Sarasota, Florida. He later moved to Orlando where he started a new career path. That career path led him to his soulmate and wife Mrs. Tangia Wright-Haddock. Together they purchased their first home and raised their three beautiful daughters.

Bernard loved to offer a helping hand to anyone who needed it. He'd give you his undivided attention, his shoulder to cry on and a bit of good advice when needed. He loved his family and cherished his wife and kids. He was a friend to all who met him. His smile drew you in and kept you there engaged in conversation. Bernard loved to volunteer his time to the youth. If there was a kid who need his attention, he would surely give it to them. That was something he was passionate about – helping kids. He gave pieces of his heart to all who met him.

A TIME TO DIE

God saw that Bernard was getting tired, so he put his arms around him and whispered, “come to me”. Bernard was proceeded in death by his father, Jerome Haddock.

A TIME TO MOURN

His departure is a deep and personal loss to his wife, children, family and friends. He will be greatly missed by them all.

Bernard leaves to cherish his memories: His Wife, Tangia Haddock; Three Daughters, Natalia Haddock (16), Amber Wright (15), Natasha Haddock (13); Mother, Angela Parker; Brother, Jeremy Haddock; Grandparents, Jerry and Senora Haddock; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and close friends.

“ I am honored and grateful to have shared some memorable moments with my Brother-in-Arms, Sergeant Jerry Haddock, both personally and professionally. He is truly one of the greats when it comes to community outreach and being a mentor for those that are in need. He has always been a competitive Spirit, Warrior, and Champion for as long as I have known him, and I know he will continue to be a Warrior in Heaven for God's will. He is, and will always be, that ray of light that will never be forgotten. You will be missed.

Rest In Heaven Brother. May your family be Blessed with Strength, Peace, and Love from above as you watch over them.
