

Mother Jessie Mae Leston

September 18, 1919 - June 2, 2014

The Lord Is My Shepherd, I Shall Not Want Psalm 23:1

Mother Jessie Mae Leston daughter of the late Angus G. Potter and Maggie Potter was born September 18, 1919. She departed this life Tuesday, June 2, 2014 at 11:30pm.

She accepted Jesus Crist as her Lord Savior at an early age and in later years joined Ball Chapel A.M.E. Church in St. Cloud, FL.

She was a pillar in the community. She was friend, a counselor, and disciplinary to everyone she met. When the weather was pleasant she love to sit on her front porch and everyone that pass by love to fellowship with her. Many would come by and bring her different items from the goodness of their heart because they knew she also had a giving heart. She loved her family dearly and raised four generations of kids. She was the epitome of "It Takes A Village to Raise a Child". When there was a need in the community she was always there to lend a helping hand. Her greatest enjoyment was on the fish creek. She love to catch, clean, cook, and eat fish. When she could no longer go fishing her son and others in the community would always bring her fish.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Herman Buster Leston, sister, Ollie Mae Holden, brother, Clyde Russ, daughter, Maggie Bolden and son

Lewis Chester Greene.

She leaves to mourn her passing sister: Wilma Potter of Lake Placid, FL.; daughter: Eartha L. Morgan of St. Cloud, FL.; three sons: Leroy C. Greene (Joannie) of Deland, FL, Leon A Green of Little Rock, AR., Kenneth E Greene of St.Cloud, FL.; a host of other relatives and friends.
