

Jessie Mae Williams

April 19, 1936 - August 12, 2019

Jessie Mae Williams was born April 19, 1936 in Moultrie, Georgia to parents, Clarence Cason, Jr. and Emmaline Thompson.

Jessie was employed with Zellwood Farms as a farming supervisor for thirty years. After retiring from Zellwood Farms she went on to work in environmental services at Health Central for another five years. After completely retiring from farming and environmental services, Jessie went on to serve as a crossing guard.

Jessie was an energetic person who brought fun and a smile to everyone she knew. Her smile would light up any room she entered and she never met a stranger. Jessie's hobbies were fishing and shopping. She loved her family and friends so much, that she would never say good bye. She'd always end her conversations in her own way by saying, "too-loo"...meaning I love you and I'll see you later.

Jessie was preceded in death by her father: Clarence Cason, Sr.; mother: Emmaline Thompson; Brothers: Clarence, Jr., Peter and Willie B.; sisters: Estella, Carrie, Mozella, Bertha, Wessie Lee and Harriet.

Left to cherish her memories are her husband: Jessie Williams; sons: Johnny (Connie) and Jessie; daughters: Juanita (Baltimore), Phyllis, Addie, Pearlle,

Polly and Margaret; brother-in-law: Byron; 27 grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends.
