

Mr. Jimmie Lee Marion

October 13, 1935 - December 28, 2017

"To every thing there is o season, and o time to every purpose under the heaven:" Ecclesiastes 3:1

A TIME TO BE BORN:

Jimmie Lee Marion, Sr., was born October 13, 1935 in Hurtsboro, Alabama to the union of Jessie and Minnie Marion. He was educated in the Russell County school system.

A TIME TO LOVE:

On July 18, 1966, Jimmie united in Holy Matrimony to Nancy Ruth. Five children were born to this union, Gloria, Leroy, Linda, Cynthia and Eric.

A TIME TO PLANT:

He worked in concrete block, then at Heintzelman Truck Center in Orlando, where he was a delivery courier until he retired in 1998.

Jimmie's pastime included gardening and working around his home.

Jimmie embraced his walk with God at an early age in his Alabama hometown.

A TIME TO DIE:

On December 28, 2017, God called Jimmie Lee Marion from labor to reward. He is preceded in death by his parents, Jessie and Minnie Marion, three brothers, Jessie, Jr., Abraham, Roosevelt (Dot); two sisters, Annie Lee and Lulu Mae; and one grandson, Antwan J. Bailey. He will truly be missed.

A TIME TO MOURN:

Jimmie's memories will forever be cherished in the lives of all that knew him. He leaves Nancy, a devoted wife of 51 years; four sons, Leroy J. Marion, Eric J. Marion, Jimmie L. Marion, Jr. (Gloria) and Ronnie Marion; five daughters, Gloria J. Howard, Linda Gaines (Erik), Cynthia Marion, Delores Marion, and Yvonne Marion; one brother Walter Marion (Lil Buddy) (Oretha); two sisters, Ella Mae Coleman and Elizabeth Marion; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and sorrowing friends.
