

Jimmy Lee Mitchell

March 12, 1949 - August 15, 2025

Jimmy Lee Mitchell was born on March 12, 1949 in Winter Garden, Florida, to parents, Jesse Mitchell and Irene Crattic Mitchell. He graduated from Charles R. Drew High School in Winter Garden, Florida.

After graduating from high school, Jimmy was drafted into service where he served in the United States Marine Corps. He was stationed at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. He completed his military training with high honors and was sent to Paris Island, where he was enlisted in the Special Forces. Jimmy was also a Vietnam Veteran.

After being honorably discharged, he returned to civilian life and worked as a dry cleaning technician.

Jimmy liked playing chess and listening to music. He and several friends from Winter Garden, started a band called, "The Seven Devils of Soul". Jimmy was good to his children and grandchildren, and he loved them dearly.

In his later years, Jimmy found Christ as his personal Lord and Savior and took delight in sharing the Word of God on social media.

Jimmy was preceded in death by his father, Jesse Mitchell; mother, Irene Crattic Mitchell; son, Theo McBride; and sister, Reatha Mitchell Masoline; brother-in-law, John Henry Masoline.
