

Joann McCalip "BABY"

December 9, 1950 - September 4, 2019

Joann "Baby" McCalip was born in Tildenville, Florida on December 9, 1950 to Horace Jackson and Beatrice Coleman. She was raised by her aunt Lila Wright. Joann graduated from Drew High School in 1968. Prior to that, she met and fell in love with Clinton McCalip, Sr. and they both welcomed their son, Aaron, born in August of 1968. He was the only son to this union. Joann and Clint later married at the time of her death, had celebrated 52 years of being together.

After Aaron's birth, Joann and Clint relocated to Miami where she worked for Miami Dade County Public Schools. She retired from there in 2007 and returned to Orlando a year later to be closer to her grandchildren. Upon her return, she joined Open Door Ministries and was a faithful member until her health began to fail. In her spare time, Joann enjoyed soap operas and completing word search puzzles.

On Wednesday, September 4, 2019, a loving life was brought to a close when Joann McCalip was called to her heavenly home.

She was preceded in death by her father, Horace Jackson, mother, Beatrice Coleman, aunt, Lila Wright; brothers: Amos Coleman, Eddie Coleman, Nathaniel Coleman, Emmanuel Jackson and Harry Jackson; aunt: Fanny Coleman; stepdaughter: Joyce McCalip.

Sorry to hear of Joann's death. We were neighbors as kids growing up in Tildenville during the "60s". I remember Eddie, Mary, Henry, Nathaniel, Mrs Lila, and of coarse Pea-Soup, to name a few. Joann was a very sweet young lady, I will miss her although I havn't seen her in years, knowing that she is no longer with us, but with GOD. May GOD bless her and her love ones. Warm Regards, Chester
