

John "Johnny" Miller, III

November 26, 1955 - September 1, 2025

John was born on November 26, 1955, in Stamford, Connecticut, to parents John Miller, Jr. and Rudeen Quince Miller. He attended Mt. Dora High School in Mt. Dora, Florida, where he excelled in athletics. He continued his education at Milligan College in Elizabethton, Tennessee, graduating with a degree in psychology. After college, John began working in the family business under the direction of his father and namesake, John Miller Jr., in agricultural contracting.

In December 1979, he married and had two beautiful children born to this union. Taraja Andreus and John IV.

After leaving work in the agricultural industry, John matriculated into truck driving cross-country. This gave him an opportunity to travel with his son, John "LJ" and grandson, Terrin. It was during this time, he met his special friend, Betty Jackson. They traveled together until her passing in 2018.

John continued driving until his health declined. He spent his retirement living with his son and enjoying his grandchildren.

John was preceded in death by his father, John Miller, Jr.; mother, Rudeen Miller; brother, Blair Miller; and special friend, Betty Jackson.

Florida; his son, John Miller IV (Chinara) of Leesburg, Florida; siblings: Oveda Miller of Tangerine, Florida, and Delvin Anderson of Mt. Dora, Florida; grandchildren: Terrin Lawson of Leesburg, Florida, Taraya McBride of Leesburg, Florida, Evan McBride, Jr. of New York, New York; Jaiden Miller of Leesburg, Florida, and Tyrail Davis of Sunrise, Florida; great-grandchild, Sarai Davis of Sunrise, Florida; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

“ John "Johnny" Miller and I had many conversations over the past five years. We talked about everything, our hopes, dreams, and sometimes our fears. Although I was in Arkansas and he was in Florida, it didn't hinder our friendship. I will miss our nightly conversations as I traveled from Memphis, TN to West Memphis, AR. Family, he loved you all and he was always talking about his grandson Jaylen. I'll miss our daily conversation and our friendship. John fought the good fight, now he is reunited with Big John, Ma Rudean, and Blair. Rest Well my friend
