

Johnny Lee Brown

February 7, 1951 - May 29, 2022

Johnny Lee Brown “Robert” was born February 7, 1951 in Winter Park, Florida to Kenneth Lee Brown and Mattie Mae Brown. He was a graduate of Boone High School. Johnny “Robert” spent most of his life in the Winter Park area. He joined the US Army and served in the Vietnam war from 1971 - 1972. Robert attended the US Army Southeastern Signal School where he completed training as a radio and relay carrier. He remained in the Army Reserve until 1977. His service awarded him the National Defense Service Medal Sharpshooter (Rifle M-16). Johnny enjoyed playing the guitar, listening to Country/R&B Music; working in his garden, completing puzzles, visiting Winter Park and watching wrestling programs. He was always willing to do what he could to help others. Johnny was preceded in death by his wife, Malissie (Gale) Greene, mother, Mattie Mae Brown, father, Kenneth Lee Brown, Sr. and brother Kenneth Lee Brown, Jr. He leaves to cherish precious memories to his sister, Mamie Lee Brown-White of Orlando, Florida; five step grandchildren: Algina Beckford, Kadeedra Sewell, Kelsey Sewell, Jaylen Wright, and Branden Wright; a host of loving cousins, nieces, nephews and sorrowing friends.
