

Johnnye Anita Landry Johnson

August 4, 1933 - January 3, 2023

Johnnye was born on August 4, 1933, in Palm Beach County, Florida, to Essie Arlene Landry and Collis Niblack. Johnnye graduated from Leesburg High School and decided to continue her education by going to college in Nashville, Tennessee. She achieved her Master's Degree in Child Development. She enjoyed working with children so much she established her career with a company named, "Thee Door" in Orlando, Florida for over 10 years.

Johnnye attended St. James A.M.E. Zion Church and later moved her membership to Harvest Time under Pastor Melvin Jenkins. She was full of life and enjoyed cooking and baking for family and friends. She was also known as the "Candy Lady or Flip Lady", which those children loved.

Johnnye was preceded in death by her Father, Collis Niblack; Mother, Essie Arlene Landry; Brother, Connie H. Landry; Grandson, Rashad C. Brown; Son-in-law, and Matthew J. Pierson.

Johnnye loved her family very much and leaves to cherish her memories, her Children: Angela Pierson of Miami, Florida, Evelyn "Sapphire" Battles (Moses) of Miami, Florida, and Geraldine Battles (Thomas) of McDonough, Georgia; Brothers: Earl Henry Landry of Wichita, Kansas and Eddie Nelson Landry "Coco" (Patricia) of Orlando, Florida; Very Special Sister, Gwen Landry of Miami, Florida; Grandson, Sherman Rivers (Mona); Granddaughter, Contricia
