

Juanita Wright Stafford

April 2, 1951 - April 16, 2023

Juanita Wright Stafford, affectionately known as “Sister Stafford”, was born April 2, 1951 in Dawson, Georgia to Corine Grier Wright and Edward Wright. The family soon moved to Winter Park, Florida.

Sister Stafford was proud to have worked for WESH TV Chanel 2 for more than 26 years. After her retirement she was a devoted Administrative Assistant at her church.

Sister Stafford was a member of Solomon’s Porch. She was an active participant in the prayer line and continuing to watch virtually after her illness made in person worship too difficult.

Sister Stafford was preceded in death by her beloved Husband, James Stafford; Father, Edward Wright; and Mother, Corine Grier Wright, as well as other family members.

She is survived by her Children: Reverend Charla Kouadio (Theresa), Katina Sneed, Lorenza Stafford, and Daughter-in-Love, Kesha Johnson; Grandchildren: Kirk Sneed and Tamara Sneed; Siblings: Johnnie Mae Wright, Wanda Louise White (Juan), and Bobbie Jean Wright; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends.

“ To my family,

Perhaps, only for Juanita would I try a second time to repeat my expression of what her life meant to me. Juanita was my bestie! That speak volumes to the all-wise God that we served; not only did He make us kin but life-long friends, as well. Together, at a very young age, we hid in the dark of a closet and took the oath of friendship by pricking our pinky fingers and swapping our blood in a covenantal relationship that the Lord knows you honored until your dying day. You never let me down, you were my bridge over troubled waters because God's Son ruled your heart and voice. So many times, I was encouraged by the music I could hear when you would sing to me to make pain and hurt go away. I know the first thing you're going to do, when you get to Heaven, is put on your white robe, exchange your cross for your crown and wings, and walk down the streets of gold all day, shouting Glory, Glory, Glory, Hallelujah! The Lord has been so good!

*Truly,
gmorris*
