

Julie Marie Cox Torres

July 16, 1964 - April 22, 2026

Julie Marie Torres was born on July 16, 1964, in Dearborn Heights, Michigan, to Francis and Sharon Cox. She graduated from Apopka High School in 1982 and soon after pursued a career in paramedicine, dedicating herself to helping others in times of need. She later found her true calling in social service, where she compassionately supported families and individuals facing difficult circumstances.

Family was always at the center of Julie's life. When her first grandson, Javier, was born, she chose to devote herself fully to caring for and nurturing her growing family. Her love extended far beyond people alone. Julie had a deep passion for animals and lovingly raised pigs, ducks, chickens, and many beloved dogs over the years.

Julie also found joy in creating a warm and welcoming home. She grew her own fruits and vegetables, always eager to share her harvest with others. She loved sewing, baking, cooking, and, more recently, discovered a passion for canning, with family and friends happily volunteering as taste testers. Whether hosting family gatherings, offering heartfelt advice, or creating natural remedies to help those she loved, Julie gave herself endlessly and wholeheartedly.

Julie was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grand-mother, daughter, sister, and friend. She had a generous spirit and was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. Her kindness, wisdom, and love touched countless lives.

Though our time with her feels far too short, we are forever grateful for the memories we shared and the love she gave so freely. Julie will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her, but her legacy will live on in the hearts of her family and friends forever.

Left to cherish her precious memory: 8 grandchildren, 1 great-grandchild, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and friends.
