“ Wow Keith! Kent just told me the news! All this time of me wondering where you were. I just want you to know that your boy Faise One is doing it! He is reaching the masses and changing the frequencies of the radio waves just like we planned! I never knew it would all be done without you here. Rest well old friend. We accomplished many things and had lots of fun on this planet. My heart is heavy with this news... You are missed. Divine, Bam Bam Entertainment Inc. (our creation)
