“Janay, William and the entire Wright family. I am deeply saddened by Kevin's untimely passing. I met Kevin in 1984 in my hometown Huntsville, Alabama. He was a young marine serving our country at Redstone Arsenal. He later became my brother-in-law after marrying my sister, Lisa. To this union, Janay was born. Kevin had a close buddy at that time, Dimitri Henry, who later became my husband. Kevin was very charismatic. He was always smiling and really thought he could dance. If memory serves me well, the last time I saw Kevin, was in Atlanta. We were both there for Janay's high school graduation. He was still smiling and still thinking he could dance. The Henry Family wishes you solace as the days go by, strength as you reminisce on all the good memories, and comfort in knowing that Kevin has started life anew in The Kingdom. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted". You're already missed. Take your rest Kevin. Well done! With heavy hearts, not saying goodbye, but farewell. We'll see you again! Love always...
