Klyode Julian Johnson, affectionately known as “Yogie” was born January 18, 1976 in Kingston, Jamaica to parents Oswald Johnson and Millicent Robinson.

Klyode was a very strong willed, loving, smart and generous person. At the age of 10, he won a scholarship from Calvary Prep for Jamaica College where he became a champion in soccer. This gave him the opportunity to play for many high schools in Jamaica.

Klyode migrated to the United States in 1989 where he attended Hallendale in Florida. In 1990 he moved to New York where he attended both Evander Child and Fordham Academy.

In 1998, he returned to Florida where he married Annette Johnson. To their union were born three children, Kaheem Johnson, Tafari Johnson, and Shannelle Johnson with three additional step-children. Klyode was a hard worker and worked many odd jobs to support his family.

Kody Johnson and Khyan Johnson; daughters: Klyriel Johnson, Kayla Johnson, Shannelle Johnson, Kaniya Johnson and Aariah Johnson; father, Oswald Johnson; mother, Millicent Robinson; brothers: Derrick Johnson and Trevor Johnson; sisters: Georgia Brown, Dorrett Johnson and Sheron Johnson; 8 aunts; 3 uncles, 7 nephews and a host of cousins, and devoted friends.
