

L'Tanya Yvonne Smith

March 2, 1969 - January 23, 2024

L'Tanya Yvonne Smith was born on March 2, 1969 in Orlando, Florida to parents, Willie Mae Parker and J.C. Smith. She was the youngest girl out of six children. She attended and graduated from Edgewater High School in Orlando, Florida.

After graduating high school, L'Tanya began her career in the foodservice industry, where she spent majority of her years working in the deli department at Publix. Due to her outstanding customer service, she became the customer's favorite member of staff, which led to her being nominated and awarded the "Employee of the Month" multiple times throughout her years of service at Publix.

L'Tanya was resilient throughout the trials and tribulations of life and she worked hard, at times working four jobs to provide for her family. She loved her children dearly and made many sacrifices to make sure they had. Her favorite past time was spent caring for and spending quality time with her six children and nine grandchildren. She was the life of the party at every event she attended, baring gifts and the biggest bright smile.

She attended Patmos Chapel where she dedicated her Sabbath to praise and worshipping as a Deaconness. L'Tanya had a big heart and was always willing to help others. One of her biggest passions was helping in the community.

She was always eager to assist with the Back-to-School Drive for the youth, donate to the women and children's shelter, and provide meals to the elderly.

L'Tanya was preceded in death by her Father, J.C. Smith; Mother, Willie Mae Parker; Brother, Manuel Sept; Sister-in-law, Sherlese Finley.

Left to cherish her memory are her Children: Alicea (Jamar) of Orlando, Florida, Javonndia (Omar) of Tampa, Florida, Alexia, Zamaria, Jeremiah, and Jahiem, all of Orlando, Florida; Siblings: Willie (Sherlese), Wayne, Sheri, and Malcolm, all of Orlando, Florida; 9 Grandchildren: Corinthian, Corneilius, Jamaria, Jamar Jr., Carmelo, Markell, Airel, Gizelle, Neymar; Bonus Granddaughter, Darnell; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

“ I was blessed to see L'Tanya accept Christ in her life and watched her grow in faith. She became an ordained Deaconess at Patmos SDA Church and brought her children and family to church. She served in holy communion, baptisms (eventually leading her own children and grandson to Christ in baptism) , and Bible studies. When we called L'Tanya she always spoke Faith and Life into her circumstances. She will be missed but we will see her again in the great getting up morning!
