

Labon Pollock Jr.

March 6, 1970 - May 26, 2024

Labon Pollock, Jr. was born in Orlando, Florida, on March 6, 1970. His parents, Labon Pollock Sr. and Helen Smith Pollock raised him with love and care. Growing up in Zellwood, Florida, Labon attended Apopka High School, where he laid the groundwork for his future pursuits. Labon developed a deep love for automobiles while working alongside his father at the family automotive yard. This early exposure ignited his passion for cars and the art of repairing them.

As an automotive mechanic, Labon Jr. dedicated himself to serving his community with unwavering commitment. He was known for his quiet and unassuming nature, always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. Labon Jr. was a man of few words, yet his words always carried wisdom and purpose, often serving as a peacemaker in any conflict.

His love for working on cars was evident in his everyday life, and he indulged in activities such as racing cars, playing dominoes, and enjoying a good game of bowling. Furthermore, Labon Jr. had a soft spot for classic Western movies, finding joy in watching them.

Above all, Labon Jr. deeply affectionately loved his children and grandchildren, cherishing every moment spent with them. His legacy lives on through his dedication to his family, his passion for cars, and his genuine kindness towards others.

“ Labon you were the Favorite brother to all of us siblings. We all truly felt that way. But you also was my baby. We had an UNBREAKABLE BOND , and I wouldn't trade it for nothing in this world. I would give anything to have you sitting here watching westerns or eating a good home cooked meal. Just to hear your voice and see you smile would mean so much to me. Your were so humble and easy going. I wish all our siblings were like you. And I wished our siblings saw in me what you saw, so that the would know there's no need to be jealous. You will forever hold a special place in my heart . I Love you brother and I pray we both reign with the Lord one day in paradise. Sip my dear brother until we meet again ❤️❤️❤️❤️
