

Lacia Cassandra Brown

June 16, 1966 - February 13, 2020

Lacia Cassandra Brown was born on June 16, 1966 in Newark, New Jersey to Mildred Hardwick and Napoleon Brown, Sr.

She relocated to Florida where she attended New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Sorrento, Florida; she shared her angelic voice by singing in the Choir. She later moved to the Apopka, Florida area and attended Phillis Wheatley, Apopka Memorial and Apopka High School. Lacia was caregiver for her youngest child Antonesia. She was a very strong women who loved her kids and family dearly. She also enjoyed listening to gospel music.

Lacia was a devoted mother, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin and friend. She was the sweetest person you could ever ask the Lord for. She would welcome a stranger in with opened arms. She would give her last to help anyone or make provisions for those in need beyond her means. Lacia Cassandra Brown, baby you are going to be truly missed and forever loved.

Lacia was preceded in death by her father, Napoleon Brown, Sr.; sisters, Cynthia Brown, Sharon Brown, Beverly Brown, Lakechia Michelle Warren Alexander and brother, Darrel Brown.

Lacia leaves to cherish precious memories to: companion: John Brown of Orlando, Florida; mother: Mildred Ellison of Orlando, Florida; sons, Brantwon
