

LaKendra Antionette Moore

March 7, 1986 - September 6, 2023

LaKendra Antionette Moore was born to Johnnie D. Moore and Earnestine Collier, on March 7th, 1986 in Winter Garden, Florida. She attended Orange County Public Schools and graduated from West Orange High School.

LaKendra was gifted with many talents. Among those were: event decorating, t-shirt design, gift basket arrangements, custom novelties, graphic designs and caring for children. Although she did not have biological children, her maternal qualities allowed her to love and care for them as if they were her own.

LaKendra was employed by BG Staffing and excelled as a Maintenance Technician. In addition, she served as the Administrative Assistant and Events Liaison for White Party, LLC, in Atlanta, Georgia, where she helped to facilitate “Women in Business” empowerment workshops. Because she was a “people person”, this role proved to be one she enjoyed and performed with ease. LaKendra simply loved people. She accepted everyone for who they were and where they were on their life’s journey. She sought out opportunities to support others and demonstrated this support regularly on her social media platforms.

LaKendra’s memories will be cherished by her mother: Earnestine Collier; father: Johnnie D. Moore; siblings: Willie Collier, Jr. (Denice), Tracy Collier, Erica Scruggs, Christopher Steven Moore; aunts: Bettie Clay, Vernel Brown; uncles: Eddie Clay (Jeanette), Frank Talley, Marvin Day (Tracy), James A. Moore, Ron Day (Eletha), Harold Hill (Lisa); nephews: Kentric Collier, Sr., Willie Collier III, Johnnie Thomas III, Zaivyon Collier; nieces: Shaniya Collier, Sgt. Tamera Roberts; great-nieces: Khloe Collier, Naryiah Collier, Kennedy Collier and Kendall Peacock; great-nephews: Kentric Collier, Jr., Johnnie Robert Thomas IV and Nathan Chase; Godchildren: Kenniyah Lee, Ke'sean White and Shadarius Sigler, Jr.; a host of cousins, extended family and loyal friends.
