A TIME TO BE BORN:

LaNavorety Woodson was born on July 4, 1956 in Orlando, Florida to Reverend Lurene Woodson and Eugene Woodson.

A TIME TO LEARN:

LaNavorety attended and graduated from Apopka High School. He also attended Valencia Community College.

A TIME TO ENJOY:

LaNavorety enjoyed life and lived it to the fullest. He was a people's person. Many people from the neighborhood knew him as "Rat". He was very entertaining and comical at times. He loved to dress and spend time with family; especially with his daughter, Tiffany and granddaughter, Deriyan.

LaNavorety was very caring. He would help anyone in need. Whether he had it or not, whatever he had, you could have it if he felt it would help you in someway. If he called you friend or family, you could best believe he would always be there for you if he could.

A TIME TO REST:

On December 17, 2024, God saw His faithful soldier getting tired. He gently beckoned and called him to heaven to receive his wings and crown.

LaNavorety was preceded in death by: Parents, Reverend Lurene Woodson and Eugene Woodson, both of Apopka, Florida; Siblings: Brother, Lawyer Woodson, Sister, Gwendolyn Woodson, both of Apopka, Florida.

LaNavorety is survived by: a Loving Daughter, Tiffany Woodson; Granddaughter, Deriyan Woodson; Siblings 2 Brothers, Willie Gene Woodson, Birmingham, Alabama, William Bruce Woodson (Jane), Apopka, Florida; 2 Sisters, Deborah Orr, Jacksonville, Florida, Sandra Block (Michael), Apopka, Florida; Aunt, Lucille Kellom, Covington, Georgia; Uncle, Lewis Kellom (Lottie), Altamonte Springs, Florida and a host of loving nieces, nephews, and cousins.
