“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, it is at times difficult to receive the comfort we search for. In times like these I know I can find comfort in God's word. In John 5:28,29 He tells us " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer ( 2 Cor 1:3 ).

“ LaToya was my best childhood friend. From the loads of sleepovers and trips to the fair, the skating rink, and cruising through town, we were inseparable. I was honored when she asked me to be godmother to her son. She was a beautiful bridesmaid in my wedding. Her generous spirit, kind heart, and outrageous sense of humor are what I will remember the most. She was a beautiful person inside and out.
