“ I just heard of LV's passing. I'm so sorry and sad. LV has been taking care of our yard for many years. He was such an honest, hard working and sweet friend to our family. We will miss him. Praying God will comfort you and wrap His arms around you at this time.

“ To Mitt, the children, and other family members, although I will be unable to be there I am sending my prayers and love by way of the holy spirit. I know that this is a difficult time for you, but just remember God is with US all of the time. He is a burden lifter, and a broken heart meander. L. V. Was one of His children. He knew that you loved him, but he loved him first. He had much love for family, and he demonstrated it by his willingness to be with them and support them when needed. The last time I saw him was in Vienna, supporting his brother Johnny Lee. Be blessed, and know that you are surrounded by prayers and love of family and friends.
