

Leila Mae Davis

September 10, 1938 - December 14, 2025

With grace and quite strength, our beloved mother, Leila Mae Davis, affectionately known as “Mrs. Ruth,” entered into her eternal rest at the age of 87, stepping peacefully into the arms of her Lord and Savior.

She was born to her loving parents, the late John F. Wilkerson and Olivia Wilkerson, as their only child.

She leaves to cherish precious memories, four children: Cynthia Lattimore, Cornita Bronson, Samuel T. Bronson III (Elena), and Robin Phillips (Walter); eight grandchildren, nine great grandchildren, two great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and extended family. Her warmth, wisdom and unwavering faith will forever guide all who knew and loved her.

Leila was born in Dawson, Georgia, and in her early years she attended Terrell County School System. She graduated from Jones High School in Orlando, Florida, and later attended Bethune-Cookman College in Daytona Beach, Florida, where she majored in Education and proudly marched as a member of the Bethune-Cookman College Marching Band. Her instrument of choice was the saxophone.

Following her college pursuits, Leila devoted her career to educating students throughout Florida. She later received the opportunity to move to Detroit, Michigan where she served for many years as a pre-school Director within the Wayne County School District. She was deeply committed to ensuring that every child was given the opportunity to learn.

Leila relocated back to Orlando, Florida, where she lovingly served as a caregiver to her mother, who battled Alzheimer's disease until her passing, and embarked on a new career in sales and Marketing within the Retail Industry, where she worked for several years until her health began to decline.

A woman of strong faith, Leila touched countless lives through her years of service. Her love for Christ and steadfast devotion were evident through her faithful membership at Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in Orlando, Florida, where she served as a member of the Choir, Usher Board, Sunday School teacher, and so graciously read the weekly announcements. She also attended Greater Mt. Carmel Missionary Baptist Church in Tangerine, Florida.

“ Mommy you have always been my biggest fan, my guide, and my best friend. I'm going to miss our long talks and shared laughter. These memories I will hold dear to my heart, and carry the precious moments with me as they continue to bring me comfort.

Take your rest Mommy, you are loved and cherished always.

“ To the dove that carries my love,
With wings of peace and whispers from above,
Fly gently through the heavens wide,
And rest where angels now abide.
This dove, a prayer, a song,
For the mother whose love still keeps us strong.
Though your voice is quiet, your presence remains,
In every sunrise, in soft falling rain.
So fly, sweet dove, on wings of grace,
And kiss her cheek in that holy place.
