“Lucy”

*I was thankful and honored to be on this journey with you
Over this last year
Sharing our every hurt about cancer
Trying to comfort each other's fears*

*But we still we laughed so hard at times
About stuff that only you and I were aware
I wish I could hear your laugh right now
Because this is almost too much for me to bear*

*You would be so proud of your 4 kids right now
They're the true warriors that you raised
They said you told them to trust God with all their heart
And honor him in all their ways*

*They keep saying they will be okay
But for me, this one is a little deep
I still promise you I will be strong
Though right now I'm so devastated and weak*

*I wish you could have seen all the people in the church today
I always knew you were a superstar
You've left such a twinkle in so many hearts
And we don't have to wonder where you are*

*You always said to be absent from the body
Is to be present with the Lord our God
We're very happy you're in a better place
Though being without you is going be hard*

*I know you're dancing around in heaven right now
Keeping everyone else on beat
I promise I will always step in the name of love
But until then, Save Me a Seat*

I Love you Lucy!...Freda "Free" Mays

You don't have to know a person for a "lifetime" for them to IMPACT you for your lifetime. You didn't know....but in my cubicle I would write down the encouraging things/phrases you would say to me. I've kept every text message and will cherish EVERY hug and conversation we've had. I'll miss you terribly!

“ I met Lucy during our seventh grade school year, 1963. I was captured by her kind and outgoing personality, always had that pretty smile that made you feel comfortable with being around her. I will always remember her as a great person who always gave her best in whatever she did. She was an inspiration to me, and was a model to admire. Lucy touched the lives of many and she leaves behind a legacy of goodwill and kindness that will live on for years to come. We will miss her in body, but she will live on in our heart.

I was very saddened to hear about the passing of Lucy. She was a very special person who demonstrated much compassion and love to everyone that she met. Lucy will be deeply missed, such a beautiful lady who have touched the lives of countless individuals. The impact of her loss is felt by many both far and near. A few years ago I worked with Lucy and had the privilege to laugh and talk with her on a regular basis. She shared so many stories about some of my family that she grew up with here in Apopka. My cousin, Lorenzo Neil; who now lives in Mt. Veron, New York sends his condolences. In parting, the Bible tells us " that to be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord " By knowing this we will see Lucy again.

To the family and friends, we love you much.
