Leola C. Horne was born on January 2, 1943 to the late Ozzie Corbin, Sr. and the late Essie Jones Corbin, in Washington Park, Florida. Leola attended Orange County Public Schools, graduating from Hungerford High School, Class of 1961. She continues her education at Cortez Peters Business School in Washington, D.C.

Leola resided in Daytona Beach, Florida where she retired as an Administrative Assistant after 40 years with General Electric / Martin Marietta / Lockheed Martin.

Leola loved life and experienced as much as possible. She enjoyed family reunions and traveling to Europe, Canada, cruising the Caribbeans, and visiting major cities in the United States. She knew what she wanted in life and never wavered from her goals. She was confident, courageous, and had a vibrant personality. She enjoyed talking on the phone and dancing with her brother Clyde. She was affectionately known as "Bunchie" to everyone, but Granna to her children and grandchildren.

Leola is preceded in death by: father - Ozzie Corbin, Sr.; mother - Essie Jones Corbin; sister - Ann Corbin Haire; and brother - Ozzie Corbin, Jr.

Leola's surviving family members: children - Ushanda Johnson (Lonnie) of Sanford, Florida, Jenine Adams (Jerome) of Apopka, Florida, and Erica Sumpter (Robert) of Apopka, Florida, Siblings - Clyde W. Corbin (Marian) of Atlanta, Georgia, Ricky A. Corbin of Orlando, Florida, and Cathy M. Corbin of Orlando, Florida; 6 grandchildren - Arielle Taylor, Tyrone Johnson (Ashley), Summer Johnson, Taylor Adams, Ashton Adams, and Raine Sumpter; 1 great-grandchild - Eden Johnson; a loving Goddaughter - Shena Roscoe (Thomas); and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
