

Leon Jerome Allen

September 3, 1963 - March 14, 2023

Leon Jerome Allen was born on September 3, 1963 in Columbus, Georgia to James and Rosa “Barbara” Allen, at the Military Base in Fort Benning, Georgia.

Leon attended Mollie Ray Elementary and Evans High Schools after moving to Florida in 1971. He furthered his education by attending the Orlando Barber School and LeCordon Blue College of Culinary Arts in Orlando, Florida.

Leon loved and worked with Race Horses at the now, defunct, Orlando Horse Track. He would often talk about his days of racing horses in New York and Connecticut. He shared more about horse racing than his cooking, which he also loved dearly.

Leon leaves to cherish precious memories to his father: James T. Allen; mother: Rosa “Barbara” Allen; three siblings: Phillip Allen (Jamai) of Clearwater, Florida, Timothy Allen of Orlando, Florida and Kimberly Allen of Atlanta, Georgia; eight uncles: Benjamin Allen and Charlie Siplin both of Orlando, Florida, Rollie Siplin of Winter Garden, Florida, George Allen of Panama City, Florida, Theodore Allen of Hawaii, Donnie Allen (Isabelle) of Virginia, Charlie James Allen of Georgia and Homer Gaines of Orlando, Florida, three aunts: Nellie Smith of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Carrie Siplin of Winter Garden, Florida and Helen Siplin of New York; three nieces: Jessica Givens, Kamari Harris and Monica Leon; three nephews: Christopher Givens, Miles Harris and Phillip T. Allen; one great niece: four great nephews: a host of other cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
