

Lhonnaire Bein-Aime

April 18, 1953 - November 15, 2019

Lhonnaire Bien-Aime was born on April 18, 1953 in La'Zile, Haiti to the parents of Cedernier Bien-Aime and Amante Charlotin. He graduated from high school in Haiti and decided to come to America to support and make a better life for his family.

Lhonnaire became an American Citizen in the early 2000's where he continued his education and became a CNA. After many years of working for Dewor Nurseries, Inc., he retired. He was very dedicated to his job and appreciated all the people he worked with.

Besides traveling to Haiti for vacations, Lhonnaire loved making time to spend with his grandchildren, playing dominoes with his great friends, talking about the accomplishments of his children, trying to figure out the winning numbers and attending church services. He had a bright and calm personality and was well known for his ability to sense when people needed an ear to talk to and assisted when possible.

At the age of 66, Lhonnaire Bien-Aime died peacefully in his home on November 15, 2019 in Mount Dora, Florida.

Lhonnaire was preceded in death by his parents, Cedernier Bien-Aime and Amante Charlotin, brother, Enold Bien-Aime, sisters, Mylande Bien-Aime and Tersila BienAime.

Lhonnaire leaves to cherish precious memories to: his children, Jean L. Bien-Aime (Chela) of Reading, Pennsylvania, Binty Bien-Aime of Hyde Park, Maryland, Jennifer R. Bien-Aime of Springdale, Maryland, Quakneshia Arnold of Longwood, Florida, Quaiedra Arnold of Apopka, Florida and Jameika S. Bien-Aime of Mount Dora, Florida; siblings, Yvose Bien-Aime of Haiti, Monita Bien-Aime of Haiti and Tercia Bien-Aime of Haiti; a host of other relatives and sorrowing friends.
