

Mother Lillie Mae Hagins

April 24, 1931 - August 7, 2025

Lillie Mae Hagins was born April 24, 1931, in Bainbridge, Georgia to Robert Clark and Essie Mae Cleveland Clark Thomas. She attended school in Fowlstown, Georgia.

Lillie Mae Hagins moved to Apopka, Florida in 1952, and shortly thereafter, she met the love of her life, Reverend Reuben Hagins, Sr. To their union, twelve children were born. They remained married and inseparable for 68 years until God called Reverend Hagins home on June 13, 2019.

Sister Lillie worked in the agricultural industry and was employed by the Long Farm Carrot House for many years.

Sister Lillie loved the Lord and served him with grace and sincere dedication. Her service to the Lord was evident as she stood by her husband's side, both faithful and true until the end. She further demonstrated her profound passion and belief in the gospel of Jesus Christ by raising her family in the ways and admonition of the Lord, as well as being an example of his love, wisdom, and unwavering faith to each of them.

Sister Lillie Mae Hagins has gone to rejoin her beloved husband and the rest of her family who have gone on before her.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Reverend Reuben Hagins, Jr.; father, Robert Clark; mother, Essie Mae Thomas; sons: Robert Lee Hagins, Lorenzo Hagins, Sr., and Reuben Hagins, Jr.; and daughters: Ruby Lee Hagins, Laura Lee Hagins, and Floranett Hagins.

Left to cherish her memory and continue in the faith built on the foundation both she and her husband laid, are her loving children...sons: Willie Morris Hagins (Jackie) of Plymouth, Florida, Alton Hagins (Gail) of Plymouth, Florida, and Alvin Hagins (Mia) of Apopka, Florida, daughters: Lillie Marie Jones (Admiral) of Eustis, Florida, Annette Smalls (Willie) of Plymouth, Florida, and Tessie Gilyard (Larry) of Mt. Dora, Florida; brother, John Wesley Clark of Apopka, Florida; sisters: Ellalou Newsome of Apopka, Florida and Vernice Hicks of Pompano Beach, Florida; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, great-great-great-grandchild-ren, and great-great-great-great-grandchildren, other loving relatives, church family, and friends
