

Linda Joyce Poole

August 26, 1951 - September 27, 2018

Linda Joyce Poole was born in Zellwood, Florida on August 26, 1951 to Fred and Hyra Cunningham. She married the love of her life, Alfred in 1988 and they shared a blended family of twelve children.

Linda was a hardworking woman who took her job as a Laboratory Technician just as serious as her commitment to being a loving wife and devoted mother.

Though she struggled with her health, she remained vibrant and full of life. She was humble and accepting of others regardless of differences. Her smile was contagious and she loved selflessly. She was very meek, understanding and kind.

Linda dedicated her life to Jehovah in 1992 and demonstrated this devotion by ensuring that she and the children were active at weekly bible studies, theocratic ministry school, field service and Sunday services faithfully. Her love for Jehovah was so strong that her husband followed in her footsteps and dedicated his life to Jehovah as well.

Linda gracefully took her last breath on September 27, 2018. Linda was preceded in death by her loving husband, Alfred Eugene Poole, Sr., parents, Fred and Hyra Cunningham and brother, Fred Cunningham.

She is survived by nine daughters: Dracena Grimes (Norris) of Carrollton, Georgia, Sagittia Hall (Myron) of Tampa, Florida, Alfreda Johnson (Randy) of Winter Garden, Florida, Kiara Davis (Horace) of Winter Garden, Florida, Ceana Davis of Carrollton, Georgia, Sophia Poole of Mt. Dora, Florida, Joyce Mitchell of Eustis, Florida, Alesandria Fleming (Jermaine) of Apopka, Florida, Melinda Poole (Keith) of Syracuse, New York; sons, Alfred Poole, III (Tamekia) of Leesburg, Florida, Daryl Poole (Maria) of Eustis, Florida, Alfred Poole, II of Miami Gardens, Florida; a host of beloved grandchildren, great-grandchildren, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
