“ I loved her for who she was . She was to me the mother that I never had. Even though I was married to her son . She didn't treat me as if I didn't have her kids blood. Even in circumstances in situations that arose .I like what she always spoke these words she would say to me Trina you know that I'm always for the right .Which meant that regardless of who it was andhow it was done she wasn't going to go out for the wrong way . She was going to tell you what's right. I love her so much for that God had really given her family a angel. May God bless her family love ones and may her memory . Live on forever in love and peace . It is in Jesus name I pray Amen.
