TO

“ *My Sweet, Dearest Brother Lo,
You always had this way about making ME feel like I was the MOST important person when we were together! You had that sweet spirit about yourself that never changed or waivered...always asking me if I was okay...always genuine! You are the epitome of a "great" brother and I thank God for that!
You are free now from all worries and pain, of this journey called life. So hard to say goodbye, but we must let you rest. Your family and friends miss you already! Rest in Peace, my sweet dear brother Lo!*

Praying for you and with you during your time of bereavement. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. God is our Refuge and Strength, a very present help in trouble.
