

Lottie Loretta Davis

July 24, 1941 - February 21, 2024

Lottie Loretta Davis was born July 24, 1941 in Kissimmee, Florida. She is affectionately called “Loretta” by family and friends. During her youth Loretta was a member of Pine Grove Missionary Baptist Church. She attended Kissimmee High School where she graduated Valedictorian of her class in 1959. Loretta attended Florida Memorial College in St. Augustine, Florida which has since been relocated to Miami, Florida. After graduation, she moved to Daytona Beach, Florida to work alongside her uncle Charlie Greggs.

Loretta spent many of her younger years living in Daytona Beach, Florida. She worked in the hospitality industry assisting her uncle, Charlie Greggs. Together, they kept the Atlantic Beach strip hotels ready for year-round guests.

Loretta loved entertaining family and friends, and no one was ever a stranger. She enjoyed cooking with her spicy southern flair which had everyone wanting more. She is known for her homemade potato salad that everyone requested at family gatherings. Her crispy, golden, and succulent fried chicken was another favorite requested by family and friends.

Loretta’s favorite pastime included watching western television shows and watching and ordering products from the Home Shopping Network.

Loretta did not have any children of her own but thoroughly enjoyed keeping children in the family and within the community. During Easter, the children would look forward to the vibrant, colorful Easter eggs that she'd color by hand the night before. Loretta would also occasionally put hot dogs and hamburgers on the grill for the children on her street. She will truly be missed.

Loretta was preceded in death by her beloved parents: Clarence and Mildred Davis; Brother, Eddie "Sonny" Davis (Jewelene); and Sister, Gail Regina Davis.

She leaves to always remember and cherish her memory: Brother, Clarence O. Davis, Jr.; Sister, LaFran Davis Turner (Robert "Bob"); and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, great nieces, and other loving relatives and devoted friends.
