

Lular Mae Hill

November 17, 1942 - February 22, 2026

Mrs. Lular Mae Hill was born on November 17, 1942 in Ashburn, Georgia to the parents of the late Clifford and the late Luvenia Davis. After some time the family moved to Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Lular Mae Hill shared her life with Willie C. Hill until his death in 1966. Later, the family moved to Apopka, Florida where they settled.

Lular spent her working years caring for others. She worked at the Waterman Village and Avante Nursing Home for many years. Her calling was to work with the elderly. Those who knew our mother, knew that not one speck of dust could be on anything she was around. She would literally start cleaning wherever she was. This strive for cleanliness carried over to her fashion sense. She visited the hairdresser every two weeks faithfully. She was very distinguished, and very well dressed. She loved to cook and have family gatherings with her children and grandchildren.

Another past time was her love of gardening. She spent countless hours working her flower beds and yard.

Lular Mae Hill was preceded in death by: her sisters, Eloise Hackney, Elizabeth Whitaker, and Glorinda Martin; brother, Willie George Banks.

She is survived by: her daughters, Shirley Poke (Terry), Sherry Hill, Gloria Hill, and Delores Hill, son, Danny Daniels, Sr. (Erin); siblings, 2 sisters, Mamie Daniels and Sarah Taylor (George), and 1 brother, Dan Martin (Acolia); many grandchildren, great-grandchildren; special friend, Clarence Williams; and a host of other family members.
