

Luvenia P. Paige

August 9, 1932 - December 2, 2018

A Time to be Born Luvenia Paul Paige was born in Oviedo, Florida to the late Bertha L. Smiley on August 9, 1932. She was the eldest child raised by her parents. Her mother married Deacon Willie McNeal and the family settled in Winter Park, Florida. Luvenia was a proud and protective big sister to her late siblings: Solomon Browdy, Sylvester Paul, Ruth Hamilton and her surviving siblings Mae Alice McNeal and Deborah McCain (Kenneth McCain).

Luvenia accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at a young age and continued to serve Him throughout her life. She was a longtime member of Mt. Moriah Missionary Baptist Church in Winter Park, Florida, where she served as a member of her beloved Choir #1.

A Time to Learn As a child Luvenia attended Orange County public schools.

A Time to Love In 1952, she married her husband the late Malachi Walker Paige. Their marriage encompassed nearly 50 years. Luvenia was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and great- great grandmother. She loved each of her family members and friends with devotion and compassion second only to her love for the Lord.

A Time to Labor Most of her life Luvenia worked with several families in a domestic capacity forming lifelong bonds with everyone she encountered. She retired in 1992.

A Time to Mourn She leaves to cherish her memories Four Children: Joseph Paige (Doris) of Orlando, Florida, Cynthia Hammonds (Wilbert) of Winter Park, Florida, Carolise Sutton (Ronald) of Orlando, Florida and Reuben Paige Sr. (deceased, Michelle Paige) of Orlando, Florida; Five Grandchildren: Shannon Freeman (Craig) of Altamonte Springs, Florida, Tamara P. “ Aunt Luvenia, we will miss your smile, your love, and most of all your wisdom (especially. how you expressed it). We could always count on you and Uncle Matt telling us "like it is"!!! Thanks for being there for mom you were her "Rock". I know you and Mom are celebrating as your back together again, laughing and joking while looking upon us from Heaven. We miss you down here.
