

Mrs. Lynda Dean Lamb

February 18, 1952 - May 30, 2017

Lynda D. Lamb was born in Orlando, Florida, the second of five children born to Edward and Bernice James. She was raised in Brooklyn, New York. Lynda was a very sensitive and caring young lady filled with the joy of Jesus, always willing to pray for us all. Lynda was a Jane of all trades and worked a myriad of jobs throughout her lifetime. She did nursing, cosmetology, and waitressing. Lynda was also an artist and enjoyed crafting and knitting just to name a few. Her most recent career endeavors ended with sales and customer service before retiring from the work field. Lynda was an enthusiastic reader and there were very few subjects that she couldn't expound upon. Lynda was the family's own encyclopedia. Though she had much intelligence and wisdom, Lynda was quite the fashionista and made sure to coordinate from head to toe. As an avid church goer with a smile that would light up a room, she loved to cherish precious memories.

Lynda was preceded in death by her parents Edward and Bernice James.

Precious Memories will be cherished by: her husband of twenty-one years , Robert Lamb; son, Chris James (Tasha), step-son, Rabu Gary (Sherry); step daughter, Debrina Roberson (Abdullah); brother, Edward James Jr.; sisters, Annie D. Glaspie, Theresa "Freeda" Smith (Anthony), Donna Sledge (Calvin); Two grandchildren, Chris II and Naida; a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
