

Lynda Law Mauge

April 18, 1966 - December 26, 2019

Lynda Law Mauge passed away and left us unexpectedly on Thursday, December 26th, 2019.

Lynda grew up in Orlando and was a proud graduate of Jones High School Class of 1984. After attending Florida Memorial College in Miami for three years. Lynda returned to Orlando to work for UPS, where she eventually met and fell in love with Roger, a New York guy; who recently started working as an engineer at Martin Marietta.

Lynda and Roger married in May of 1990 and produced two beautiful children, Nicholas and Camille. As a testament to their love and dedication to one another, after 29 years of marriage that love never diminished.

Lynda's love of travel and adventure found her visiting both China in 2008 and Peru in 2010, while working for Avalon Elementary School in East Orange County; which eventually led to her fulfilling her dream of becoming a Flight Attendant for American Airlines in 2017.

Lynda's infectious smile, warm personality and love of people drew all who knew her close to her.

Lynda leaves behind a legacy of love and caring in her Husband, Roger Maugé of Orlando, Florida; Children: Nicholas Maugé of Orlando, Florida and Camille Maugé of Orlando, Florida; Parents: Leon Law, Sr. and Bernadine Law, both of Tampa, Florida; Sibling, Leon Law, Jr. of Tampa, Florida; Grandparents, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and more close friends that can not be counted. She will be missed beyond of what words can speak.

“ This hit me like a ton of bricks. Your mother, whom I met while working a flight together turned out to be a friend of mine. We just spoke, i never thought it would be my last conversation with her. She was truly an Angel from above. Continued prayers for your family. Lynda will be missed. She loved you all.
