

Mack Arthur Shepherd

July 19, 1960 - November 28, 2021

Mack Arthur Shepherd was born July 19, 1960 at Orange Memorial Hospital in Orlando, Florida to Mr. Charlie Shepherd, Jr. and Pauline Wright Shepherd, of Apopka, Florida. He was the fourth oldest of his siblings.

He received his education from Orange County Public Schools which equipped him with the desire and hunger to pursue higher learning opportunities, by attending Tuskegee University in Tuskegee, Alabama.

Mack Arthur was a construction worker and entrepreneur. He was a people person, always willing to help anyone. He was also very sociable, full of wisdom and knowledge, and truly a jack of all trades.

He came to the Lord late in life and became a member of Christ Dominion Church of God in Orlando.

On November 7, 1986, Mack Arthur married his soulmate and true love, Belinda Dennis. They were married for 32 exciting, adventurous and wonderful years. From their love, two beautiful girls were born, Alicia and Brittany Shepherd. They were the apple of his eye.

Mack Arthur Shepherd was preceded in death by his mother, Mrs. Pauline Wright Shepherd; father, Mr. Charlie Shepherd, Jr.; sisters, Brenda L. Moody and Louvenia Jackson; brother, Ruford "Cut" Shepherd, Sr.

He leaves precious memories to his wife, soulmate and only true love, Belinda Shepherd of Orlando, Florida; 2 children: Alicia Shepherd and Brittany Shepherd, both of Tallahassee, Florida; brother, Clinton Shepherd of Apopka, Florida; sister, Pastor Willet Riley (Charlie) of Apopka, Florida, and Martin Shepherd of Apopka, Florida; favorite aunt, Emma Parker (Billy); favorite sister-in-law, Ann Dennis; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends.
