“ Proverbs 18:24 says: A man of many companions may come to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother. My friend is being laid to rest today. I have 14 sisters and I am not as close to them as I was Mae. Think of us as Cagney and Lacey, Laverne and Shirley, Thelma and Louise, Lucy and Ethel, Edna Mae and Mae Ethel. So many shared memories, good times, bad times, laughter and tears, happiness and heartache. A friendship that will last through eternity. Rest well my friend. I'll see you in the morning

“ I will always remember how we met in college and discovered we were cousins. My grandmother and your grandfather were sister and brother. Our families knew each other well, except the children. Although we both moved away, we both returned to Orlando and eventually found each other. We did not see each other often, but we both knew we shared our love as cousins. You are, now, your final home with our family in Heaven where you are at total peace Rest well cousin, I will see you, again!

Love,

Cousin Andre`Howard

“ I was very sad when I was informed that one of my best and forever childhood friends from Live Oak, Florida, had passed on. I will miss exchanging Christmas cards with her and occasional phone calls. My condolences to James, Keisha, Betty, Juanita, and the rest of the family. Rest on Mae Ethel.
