

Magdaline Ngozi Okonji

August 5, 1957 - May 25, 2023

A TIME TO BE BORN

Lord, you blessed me with such loving parents, Magdaline Ngozi Okonji on the day of my birth, Thursday, August 5, 1957 in Sapale, Nigeria.

A TIME FOR EVERYTHING UNDER THE HEAVEN

Magdaline received her education at Chude Grammar School- Class of 1975. Magdaline was a loving and devoted single mother. Magdaline loved all those who came into her presence. Magdaline was an older sibling who helped support and nurtured the rest of her family. After primary school, she started bootcamp for the Nigerian Customs Office. Following bootcamp she gained employment as a Customs Officer until retiring. Upon, retirement she became an entrepreneur whose business was marketing various merchandise. While residing in these United States of America, she worked at the Florida Mentor Network until 2020. She was a very strong and hardworking woman, filled with energy. Magdaline enjoyed attending church, dancing, and eating native African dishes.

A TIME TO LEAVE

On Thursday, May 25th, 2023, God's angel stretched forth his hand and guided Magdaline away from her life here on earth, to be with her Heavenly Father.

A TIME TO MOURN

She was preceded in death by her Father, Joseph Beluonwu Adimora and Mother, Florence Nwaokwere Adimora.

Magdaline leaves to cherish precious memories: a Son, Cederick Okonji (Tanisha) of Atlanta, Georgia; two Sisters: Emily Brown (Ben) and Nina Faohun (Remi) of Lagos, Nigeria; two Brothers: Douglas Adimora (Ify) and Annie Adimora (Emily) of Lagos, Nigeria; as well as uncles, aunts, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and a close in-law, Emily Howard, in addition to numerous sorrowing friends. Each and everyone will miss her presence deeply, but her spirit will live on within us.
