

Magnolia "Foxy" Wright

October 5, 1921 - November 2, 2023

Magnolia Wright was born on October 5, 1921 to Jessie and Eddie Scott in Glenn, Louisiana. At an early age Magnolia and her family relocated to Orlando, Florida and joined New Saint Mark United Methodist Episcopal Church, under the fellowship of Pastor Leroy Dennis, where she served as an active member.

Magnolia attended Jones High School in Orlando, Florida where she earned her high School diploma. After graduating from high school, she moved to Philadelphia, PA., there she met Edward Wright and was united in holy matrimony on April 8, 1953. Magnolia was an active member of Pinkett's Tabernacle Methodist Church under the leadership of Pastor Pinkett. She also sang in the church choir. Magnolia's hobbies included: cooking, singing, dancing and meeting people, she always left an impression on everyone she met or came in contact with.

Magnolia worked over thirty years at the Oscar Myer factory in Philadelphia from where she retired. After her retirement she spent a good portion of her time cooking and preparing dinners for her community. Shortly after her health began to fail in 2010, her nephew and niece moved her from Philadelphia, PA back to Orlando, Florida and cared for her.

Magnolia was preceded in death by her husband: Edward Wright; parents: Jessie and Eddie Scott; grandparents: Henry and Lula James; her brother: Joseph Scott, Sr. and cousin: Willie James Murphy.

Magnolia leaves to cherish precious memories to her: Sister-in-law: Mary Scott of Orlando, Florida; nephews: Edward Scott, Sr. (Phyllis) of Orlando, Florida; Joseph Scott, Jr. (Olivia) of Tampa, Florida; niece: Layune Scott of Orlando, Florida; great nephews: Edward Scott, Jr. (Tiffany) of St. Cloud, Florida, Kendrick Mallard (Koereyelle) of Atlanta, Georgia, Brian Johnson of Orlando, Florida and Joseph Scott, III of Orlando, Florida; great niece: Vinada Felder of Orlando, Florida; a host of cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
